

The Evacuees

What would you be allowed to take with you?

Imagine you are the child in the poster. How would you be feeling at this moment in time?

When you arrive, you are placed with your new family. What differences might there be with:

- a) your new home
- b) the food you eat
- c) the people you now live with